AN ACT ESTABLISHING A MORATORIUM FOR COMMONWEALTH CHARTER SCHOOLS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the 2 authority of the board of education to grant commonwealth char-
3 ters to an applicant pursuant to section 89 of chapter 71 of the 4 General Laws shall be suspended until the following matters have 5 been considered and are the subject of a report by a special com-
6 mission created by this act. Among the matters for consideration 7 and recommendation by said commission are the following: that 8 objective research is completed to study the effectiveness of inno-
9 vative learning strategies of the commonwealth charter schools;
10 objective research is completed to assess student learning and 11 achievement levels to measure the progress of comparable student
12 cohorts in charter and non charter public schools; an objective
13 analysis is completed to determine the enrollment and services

14 provided to students with special educational needs as defined by 15 General Laws chapter 71B, or students who are not proficient in 16 the English language pursuant to General Laws chapter 71A, or 17 students who receive free or reduced price lunch pursuant to fed-18 eral law, and an objective study is completed to determine whether 19 the tuition formula F.Y. 2005 budgetary amendment was adequate
20 to meet the needs of local school districts.

21 There shall be a special study commission to review the above 22 referenced data and to file any legislation that may be necessary to 23 implement the commission's recommendations. The first meeting
24 of the commission shall take place within 30 days after the effec-
25 tive date of this act. The commission shall consist of the house 26 and senate chairs of the committee on ways and means or their 27 designees, the house and senate chairs of the joint committee on 28 education, arts and humanities or their designees, and one repre-
29 sentative selected by each of the following: Massachusetts Associ-
30 ation of School Committees, Massachusetts Association of School
31 Superintendents, Massachusetts Teachers Association and the 32 Massachusetts Federation of Teachers.
